

Robert (Thursday)

People with learning disabilities could not vote for a long time.

We need to vote so that people can see we are part of the community.

We are voting for the issues that matter to us like:

Transport

Benefits

Housing

Leisure

Health

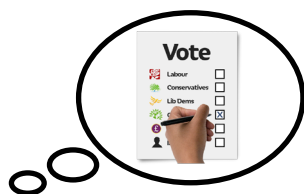

Pensions

Having choice

Having control of our own lives

These are the things I think about when I'm choosing who to vote for.